

Important communication regarding transition of Cordis UK business from Cardinal Health UK 432 Limited to Cordis Medical UK Limited effective from the 1st of May 2023.

14th March 2023

Dear Valued Customer,

You have received prior communications informing you that Cardinal Health, Inc., the ultimate parent company of Cardinal Health UK 432 Limited ("Cardinal Health"), sold its Cordis business to an affiliate of Hellman & Friedman. As part of this global transaction, Cardinal Health has agreed to transfer to Cordis Medical UK Limited ("Cordis UK"), an affiliate of Hellman & Friedman, the Cordis business in the UK, effective as of 1 May 2023.

After this date, you will begin working with Cordis Medical UK Limited to order and receive the products you require to serve your customers and patients.

The Cordis Medical UK Limited and Cardinal Health teams are working closely together to ensure an orderly transition of current Cordis commercial activities to Cordis Medical UK Limited. To that end, the table below provides you with important information to help prepare you for the transition.

Please note that the Cardinal Health cut-off date for Cordis purchase order receipts will be:

- 17:00 (CET) on Monday, 24 April 2023 for EDI purchase orders
- 11:00 (CET) on Tuesday, 25 April 2023 for standard and consignment purchase orders.

There will be a complete suspension in new order processing, for Cordis products only, from 11:00 (CET) on 25 April until 30 April 2023 to facilitate this transition. This will not affect the Cardinal Health remaining Medical Solutions business.

Commencing on 1 May 2023, Cordis will start fulfilling orders based on product availability. New purchase orders may be placed with the Cordis Customer Service team starting from 26 April.

Please note that there is no change to how you work with Cardinal Health with respect to other Cardinal Health products and solutions.

Our customers remain our top priority, and we are committed to ensuring that you and the patients you serve continue to receive the high-quality products and exceptional customer service you expect from Cordis. Please share the information provided in this notification to any other appropriate individual(s) within your organisation.

As always, should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact your Cordis Sales Representative. Thank you for your continued support to the Cordis business.
