 GBUK GroupVOLUNTARY ADVISORY NOTICE – NO ACTION REQUIRED*Advisory Notice Reference: 2025-01Date of Issue: 25th March 2025Attention: CustomerProducts Impacted by the Advisory Notice

LOT Number	Product Code	Product Description	Quantity
241109	ELDISO-5H2	ENFIT 5ML LDT PLUS	25,900 pcs
241119	ELDISO-5H2	ENFIT 5ML LDT PLUS	100 pcs

Dear Customer,

In line with our ongoing commitment to patient safety, GBUK Group has voluntarily issued this advisory notice concerning the product listed above.

Reason for Voluntary Advisory Notice:

We have noticed that for the above LOTs, the LOT number on the outer shipper label does not match the LOT number on the inner shelf box. For instance, outer shippers labelled LOT 241109 have inner shelf boxes labelled 241119, and outer shippers labelled LOT 241119 have inner shelf boxes labelled 241109.

Associated Hazard/Risk to Patient:

This issue does not pose any risk or potential hazard to the patient. The devices themselves remain unaffected and are safe for use. The primary concern is with traceability. If items are scanned at the shipper level in your traceability system, the LOT number will not match the one on the inner packaging. As a result, if items are sold at the shipper level, there is a risk of losing traceability.

Action Required:

Since the issue does not affect the use of the device, it is requested that, to maintain traceability, the items be entered into your traceability system at the shelf box level.

General Information:

Transmission of this Advisory Notice:

This notice should be distributed to all relevant personnel within your organisation, as well as to any organisation who may have received these devices.
