Subject: Depuy Synthes Legal Entity Separation: New Supplier Set-up

12th October 2026

Dear Valued DePuy Synthes Customer,

Following Johnson & Johnson's announcement of its intent to separate the orthopaedics business, we are sharing an additional update to help support your advance planning and facilitate a smooth transition over time.

As we move closer to future milestones, we want to provide early visibility into account setup considerations that will be required later in the process. Taking these steps in advance will help minimise the risk of disruption to ordering, invoicing, or service when changes become effective.

To support your internal planning, please begin preparing your purchasing and accounts payable systems to add the designated DePuy Synthes (UK) Limited legal entity. Refer to the steps below for guidance:
