Meet the brands: Kelloggs, Nestlé, VITHIT, Typhoo and Pladis

This May we are excited to offer you a great range of promotions from Kelloggs, Nestlé, VITHIT, Typhoo and Pladis.

Kelloggs have provided a range of breakfast options since 1922 including tasty cereals and snacks including Bran Flakes, Crunchy Nut and Coco Pops.

Nestlé is home to an extended range of brands from global icons to local favourites, offering delicious foods and beverages like KitKat, Aero and more.

VITHIT offer unique blends of water, juice, tea and vitamins all combined to provide a great-tasting, hydrating drink.

Since 1903, Typhoo have produced a range of teas from decaf to extra strong for the perfect cuppa.

Pladis is a leading snacking company, providing the nation with a diverse range of snacks from McVities, Jacob's, Carr's to name a few.

A note from the experts: Culinary and Dietetics

"VITHIT is a great alternative to sugar and calorie filled drinks. Each bottle has 70% less sugar than standard vitamin drinks, with fewer than 6 grams of sugar per bottle. They contain 100% of the recommended daily allowance (RDA) of 8 essential vitamins. They are gluten free, suitable for vegans and vegetarians, and contain no artificial colourings – the perfect lunchtime companion!

Why not combine this with a morning or afternoon cup of Typhoo tea. When consumed in moderate amounts, tea can make a good alternative to water. Tea is perfect for everyday drinking!" - Abigail Attenborough, Nutrition Compliance Manager.

"Are Jaffa Cakes a cake or biscuit? It's up for debate! Why not try garnishing a muffin or cupcake with frosting and a Jaffa Cake on top. Not only will this add a bit of fun and indulgence to a daily favourite but it's also a lower impact on the bottom line." - Michael Sharp, Culinary Specialist.
